Google Maps from El Paso TX airport to Ruidoso, NM: <https://goo.gl/maps/qLaxuy4Hayw>

Use the Google Maps directions to get from the airport to the 54 North or just get to 54, and then I would use my written directions.

My directions would be to get on 54 North from El Paso to Alamogordo.

Drive through Alamogordo on White Sands Blvd. or take the relief route around the west side of Alamogordo to the 82/54/70 intersection. Turn left (north) on 54/70 or....

Alamogordo has a Walmart in town, a great place to stop for stuff! It's behind the Burger King off White Sands Blvd.

You will take 54-70 north out of Alamogordo; Main Street turns into 54-70.

Once on 54-70 north you will be looking for and heading to the small town of Tularosa, NM.

*RIFLE HUNTERS: in Las Luz NM there is a great rifle range: This is right next to Tularosa. Address: 19 Rock Cliff Road, La Luz, New Mexico 88337 Phone: 575-443-9006. I would plan on stopping here if you need to sight in your gun.

As you enter Tularosa from the south, 54 will turn north towards Carrizozo, NM, you will stay on 70 towards Ruidoso.

You will meet guides in Ruidoso.

White Mountain Taxidermy is the meeting place in Ruidoso, NM. The address is: 26376 HWY 70 Ruidoso Downs NM, 88346. Please note that Ruidoso recently change their addressing system, and as a result not all car's GPS units will get you exactly to the front door, but White Mountain Taxidermy assures us that it should get you close!) It's on the right side of 70 after the horse track and Casino. 575.973.7458 is the shop number if you have a hard time finding them.

My wife Karin is in the office (505-801-7500) when I am in camp. This is usually the best number to try during hunting season as I often don't have cell service. 505.860-3197 is my cell. Leave a message, I check often on arrival day, but again, I don't always have cell service. The office number is a better bet.
